Summer camp registration now open at Brevard Zoo

MELBOURNE, Fla., February 21, 2019 — As the weather begins to warm up, parents looking ahead can now register their children for “wild” summer camps at Brevard Zoo.

From June 3 to August 9, the Zoo is offering a variety of half- and full-day camps for children entering kindergarten through 12th grade. Topics range from animal habitats and behaviors to wildlife conservation and nature-based adventures. New this year is the Career Explorers camp for high school students considering a future with animals.

“We always look forward to summertime here at the Zoo,” said education program manager Andrea Aubert. “Camps are a great opportunity for kids to spend time outdoors, see the Zoo behind the scenes, make friends and get a hands-on educational experience.”

An early bird discount applies to campers registered before Monday, April 15. Additional discounts for select camps are available to Zoo members. Registration and more information is available at www.brevardzoo.org/zoo-camps.
