Brevard Zoo summer camp registration now open

MELBOURNE, Fla., March 15, 2021 — Parents can now register their children for virtual and in-person summer camps at Brevard Zoo.

From June 7 to August 6, the Zoo is offering a variety of half- and full-day camps to children entering kindergarten through sixth grade. Participants can expect to learn about animal habitats, behavior, communication and more through up-close encounters, games and crafts. An American Sign Language interpreter will be present for select camps.

“Summer is always a fun time to be at the Zoo,” said Janelle Cummins, the Zoo’s director of education programs. “These camps allow kids to safely spend time outside, make friends and see the Zoo from a new perspective—all while getting an engaging learning experience.”

An early bird discount applies to Zoo members registered before Thursday, April 15. Registration and more information, such as safety protocols, are available at www.brevardzoo.org/zoo-camps.
