Upcycled Surfboards Make Up New Art Exhibition at Brevard Zoo

MELBOURNE, Fla., November 14, 2022 — A wave of upcycled surfboards showcasing scenes of Florida landscapes and iconic native animals will take over Brevard Zoo for the next few months.

More than 25 artists were chosen to transform used surfboards into works of art for this art exhibition, "Bold Boards: Visions of Florida." The boards will be displayed throughout the Zoo from November 19, 2022, to April 23, 2023.

The exhibition is to support and bring awareness to Our Legacy campaign that East Coast Zoological Society launched in December 2021. This campaign is to support Brevard Zoo and is raising funds to build an aquarium and conservation center in Port Canaveral, Florida. To learn more about this historic campaign, visit OurLegacyCampaign.org.

The art exhibition is presented by Shelby Norwich and Bob Vander Weide and sponsored by Ron Jon Surf Shop, Surfing's Evolution and Preservation Foundation, Bill and Jill Moore and Space Coast Credit Union.
