Boo at the Zoo Returns with More Spooktacular Family Fun

MELBOURNE, Fla., September 9, 2024— Boo at the Zoo, Brevard Zoo’s popular family Halloween event, will be back for daytime fun with decorations, trick-or-treat stations, and spooktacular music. Boo at the Zoo is presented by Avtec Homes.

These activities and more will be included with Zoo admission from 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays and Sundays in October. Each weekend will feature a different theme as well as unique entertainment:

- Oct. 5 and 6: This Magic-themed weekend will feature the antics of Flight Crew, jump roping professionals who were featured on America’s Got Talent, America’s Best Dance Crew & Cirque Dreams.
- Oct. 12 and 13: Batten down the hatches for a Pirates-themed weekend along with high energy, acrobatic variety show Ben & Zach.
- Oct. 19 and 20: Plan for out-of-this-world entertainment during this Space-themed weekend. The mother-daughter duo Juggling Jacks will be showing off their over-the-top hula hooping, contortion, juggling, aerial work and more.
- Oct. 26 and 27: Wild times lie ahead with this animal-themed weekend featuring fun from Cirque Fantastique by Cirque Athletics. This group will bring their gravity-defying act right to Brevard Zoo.

Boo at the Zoo is also supported by Space Coast Credit Union, Launch Credit Union, Sunrise Facial & Oral Surgery, Space Coast Urgent Care, Hetherington Therapy, and Brevard Health Alliance.
